But its upmer time the fresh, pure air, and the su r isclitties it offers to the batter, and dat the parlor isclinica it offers to the bather, amidst the brukers coming rolling in from the expert give the locality an importance not to be despised. The surf rolls up to within a few feet of the ranch, and up and down the long smooth bach, thilly wished clean by the flowing and receding idea, collice every morning, at me erry hour, takes his cleven millor run and walk to the Back River light bouse and be tick again. On Sundry the occasion of his backers with one of his lute boys, unland Du a bright and intelligent youth accompanied him to like usual run, and came in advased of him, putting and process when the nuglisie times rubbing down process when the nuglist made his appearance for the tradition of the free his training himself, but McHerry, his regular trainer, he expected in a few

At present Collier is training bitmatt, but Mc Henry, his regard trainer, is expected in a few days from New York, and he will then be subjected to a severe mellod to sid in the reduction of his fiels. Already he has ence cited, by the exercise be has imposed upon bimself and the other usual menus which the prize fighter in these use, of, in reducing binself some twenty-tight pounds, which makes a very perceptible alternation in his physique. stakes are $2.00, to be increased at the option and with the concurrence of the parties inter cated.

A small row boat has been sent to Collier from New York, and with this he practices and varies the training he daily undergoes. Three of his little hoys assist the puglilist in his training, and in the work they manifest a perfect devoted mess and affection toward him in alding him to promote the success of the anxiously looked for encounter.

A pleasant incident to the puglilist and his friends (and perhaps the result may prove it to be an ominous one), is presented of a large hald eagile, which made its appearance in the immediate vicinity of the ranch shortly after be commenced training, some weeks ago, and appears to accompany Collier in all his walks and tramps up the beach and through the country. Occasionly it perches itself on the top of a large pine tree, almost limbless by the stormy blasts of the winter winds, and there watches and robs the 5th hawks as they emerge from the bay with a covoted fish prize in their thions. Physic and continued server exercise will soom reduce Gollier down to his fighting weight, and consumpton honors, which he now helds or adds another victory to the many he has already achieved.

New York, May 25.
At last evening's session of the Synod of the Reformed Presbyteriau church the committee appointed to prepare menutes in the matter of the Reense of R. E. Thompson, made a report to the effect that the action of the Philadelphia Presbytery had been hasty and unvise, and favored the appointment of a committee to examine into the auundness of Mr. Thompson's doctrinal views and revoke his fleense in the event of finding him to hold opinious in variance with those of the church. The report was read and approved.

The following platform was adopted by the Republican party of this State: That the rebuilding of the levees is a proper object for national and, demanding the sholling of the cotton tax, and that the sugar interest be protracted and fostered.

Date et dabitur vobis. Titusville, Chamfold Co., Pa., {
May 15to, 1997.

The Rev. Napoleon Mignault, pastor of St. Ti tus' Church of this city, would respectfully sub-mit the following brief statement to the kind public, which should prompt a few thousands to do all in their power to cenic to the rescue, viz : Some three years ago, when plenty, success and prosperity dwelled in and blessed these oil regious, a much needed church, presbytery and school house were, with the authorization of our Right Reverend Bishop, hastily built and completed. The beavy debt of twelve thousand ($12,000) dollars was incurred by it, hopling to soon liquidate it, as everything indicated a lasting prosperity. But to his great regret, hard times destroyed his plans and hopes. After much labor, and the incessant toil of two years, he finds himself entirely unable to pay off the heavy indebtedness. He has tried all available means at home—converts, donations, collections, lectures &c.,—taxed his parishioners to their utmost abil ity, surrendered, to a great extent, his own perhis object, and is driven to the necessity of having resource to a grand gift concert and fair, at which over ten thousand ($10,000) dollars worth of prizes shall be distributed, some of the prizes thu prizes can be seen on the back of the licket. Piense notice that only 15,000 tickets shall be issued at one dollar a ticket

When all this is considered, the Rev. N. Mig nault feels that this application to purchase tickets entitling to a gift at the fair will not be made in vain nor considered intrusive. Send one dultar to his additions, which will entitle you to a tleket to the fair and to a prize. A partial list of prizes can be seen on the back of the tleket.

As to the matter of lotteries or anything of that character, the Rev. N. M is as much opposed to them as any other Christian; Ais is no such scheme, or the ecclesiastical authorities would may be even below. Let prompt attention be given to the matter; let the money be forwarded to the Rev. NAP. MIGNAULT, Titusville, Postefilee drawer 1.265. In Postuffice orders, so that the Remember only 15,000 tickets at one dollar each. entitling the holder to a fire admittance and a prize, some of which are worth $500.

APPROBATION OF THE ADMINISTRATOR .- This is to certify, that Rev. Napoleon Mignault, paster of St. Titus' church, Titusville, Pa., proposes to pay the heavy debts on his church and personage and convent by getting up a Grand Gift Concert and Fair, indeed, he must have recourse to some means of this kind, otherwise the generous Cathoffes of Titusville, who have already been over taxed in consequence of the large improvements made, will not be able to pay off their dehte. I

JOHN D. COADY, Administrator. [L S] John D. Coady, Administrator. To Art. Whom is May Concern.—I, the undersigned, Pastor of St. Titus' church, Titusville, Pa, do bereby serily that the proceeds of our it and Fair and Gift Distribution to take place to this city, shall be appropriated to the exclusive charitable object of liquidating the many debts of our church, parsonage and convent.—Fair to take place in about tibely days. Witness my hand and seal of our church.

The History of Princeynia-lais Fortunes and Miscortunes-His Fathers and his Greatest Emers. Hy William Marreson Trackshaf, with Lighthanics. New York M. Doulady, 1867.

We have received from the enterprising pub lishing house of M Doolady, the first volume of the series of Thackers, 's works, which they are issuing to the American public. It correspond in size and style to the Diamond edition of Dickens now in course of publication by Tickner & Fields. It is neat and compact in form, printed on fine paper with clear type, green cover, gold reuts, and contains a fine likeness of the author with characteristic illustrations from his own hand. We recollect of hearing an old chum of Thackeray speak of the foudness and facile skill of that great author for sketching while he was "cating his terms" in London preparatory to his admission to the bur, but he soon abu doned blastudics of art and jurisprudence, launch ing upon the more precarious literary career, in which he won a world-wide fame. The works of this great novalist have run through scores of oditions to this country and the want of an complete edition of the entire works of this standard writer has long been felt. for they form an Indispensable portion of every well selected library. The author of June Eyre monneed Thackeray "a profound and unique genius-the first social regenerator of his day," and the last page which Lord Mucauley looked at was Thackeray's, whose story lay of en before him at the moment of that Illustrious historian's death. In point of anyle and skill in economition Thackeray has no peer among writers of fletion, while his wit, humor and comic powers furnish an inexhaustible fund of entertainment. As especially of its sham and pretenses in social life, the works of Thackeray are unequaled. In the whole range of English fiction, there cannot be found more felicitous sketches of life and manners, as moulded and modified by the artificial ancial distinctions, which exist in England and upon the Continent than Thackeruy's wonderful creations present - characters more accurately drawn, or scenes more brilliantly colored—nowhere more exquisite touches of humor, nathor or satire. Hence to men of the Pendennis, the Newcomes, the and the Ring, Philip the Gentleman, Lovel the Widower, are established invorites, householdtriends with whom we love to hold converse our hours of case and relaxation Pree from the least taint of irreligion, vulgarity, o gross suggestion, they communicate a pleasure equally innocent and delectable to all. A great heart as well as mind had Thackeray , his caustic humor had its source in the tenderest sensibili ties. The erect of his life, and the philosophy of his amusing yet instructive writings are welsuramed up in some verses of his own postle
